

My Barber's Lounge Voted the Best Barbershop in Prince George's County in Gazette Newspaper 'Best of' Contest

The upscale barbershop chain, My Barber's Lounge, was recognized by customers and the community for operational excellence and community involvement in Forestville (3436 Donnell Drive) and Greenbelt (8831 Greenbelt Road).

GREENBELT, MD, December 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- My Barber's Lounge celebrated its first year of operations in Forestville and Greenbelt, Maryland earlier this year. The upscale chain of barbershops ends the year having been nominated as the Best Salon (Barbershop) in Prince George's County. E. Davon Kelly, the owner of My Barber's Lounge, credits the barbershop's success with skillful barbers and braiders and the shop's congenial atmosphere. Kelly exclaims, "I cannot think of a better anniversary gift than to be named the best business in the Hair Salon (Barbershop) category by Gazette Newspapers! We pride ourselves on delivering quality services at reasonable prices in an upscale environment." My Barber's Lounge has also participated in Toys for Tots, Back-to-School supply drives and fundraisers for community programs. Recently, MBL barbers provided free haircuts for residents of iCare, an emergency shelter located in Washington DC.

The Gazette and Gazette-Star Newspapers asked readers to nominate their favorite businesses throughout Prince George's County in more than 40 categories. All entries were write-in votes. Davon Kelly acknowledges MBL clients, "We are grateful to our clients for nominating us for this honor. We are also grateful to our clients for their return business. I opened My Barber's Lounge to honor my dad and the memories of the experiences that I shared with him when he would take me to the barbershop. My vision of operating a barbershop that is an integral part of the community is being realized every day."
